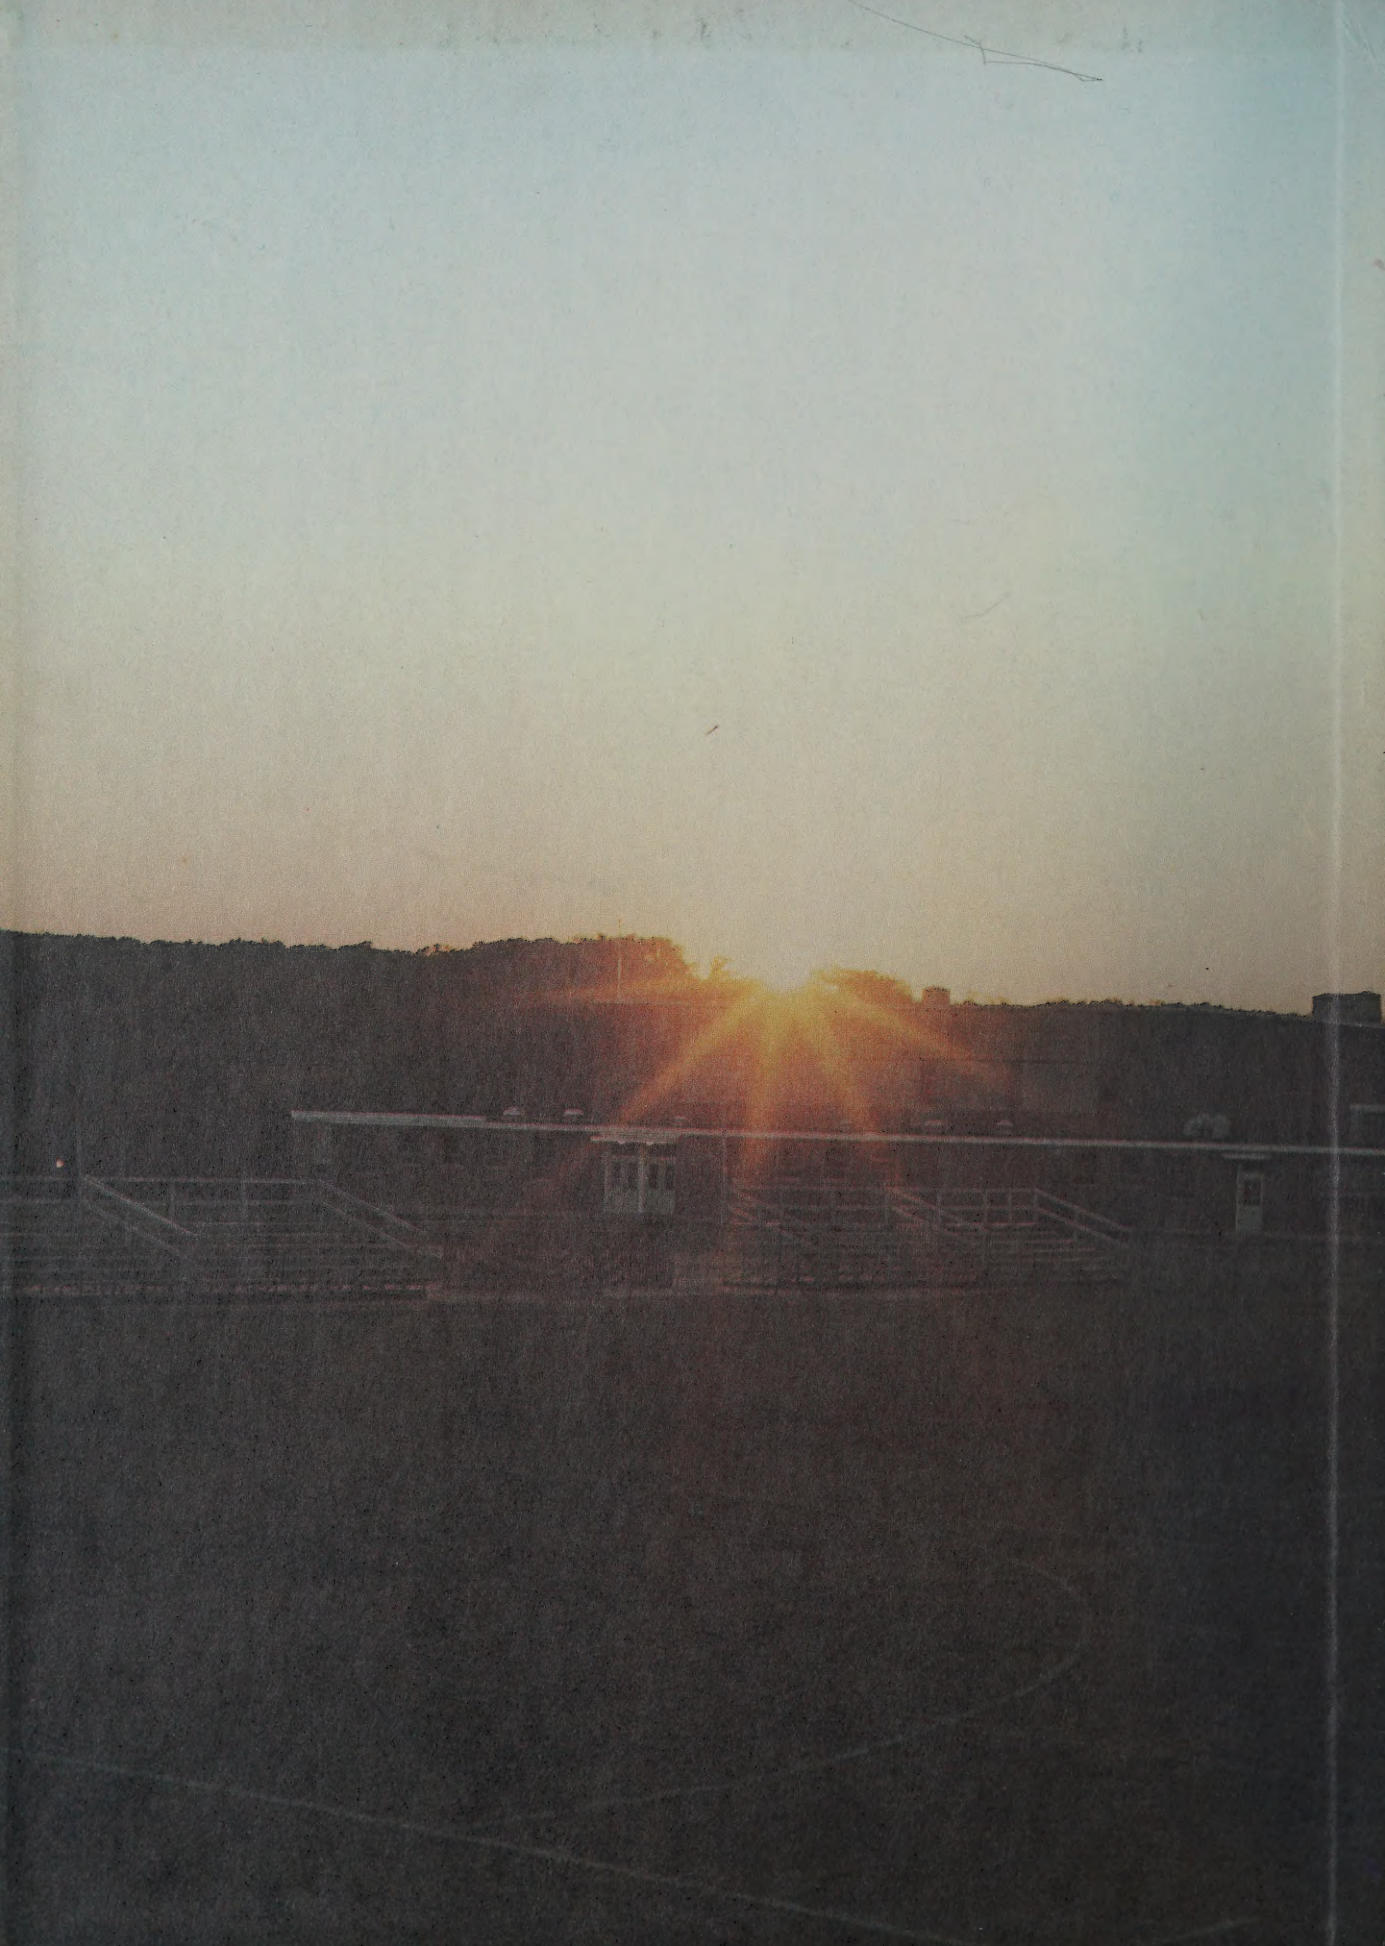
BROWN

1972



6/81 - Gift of Marlin Roach

MEMORIAL HIGH SCHOOL LIBRARY
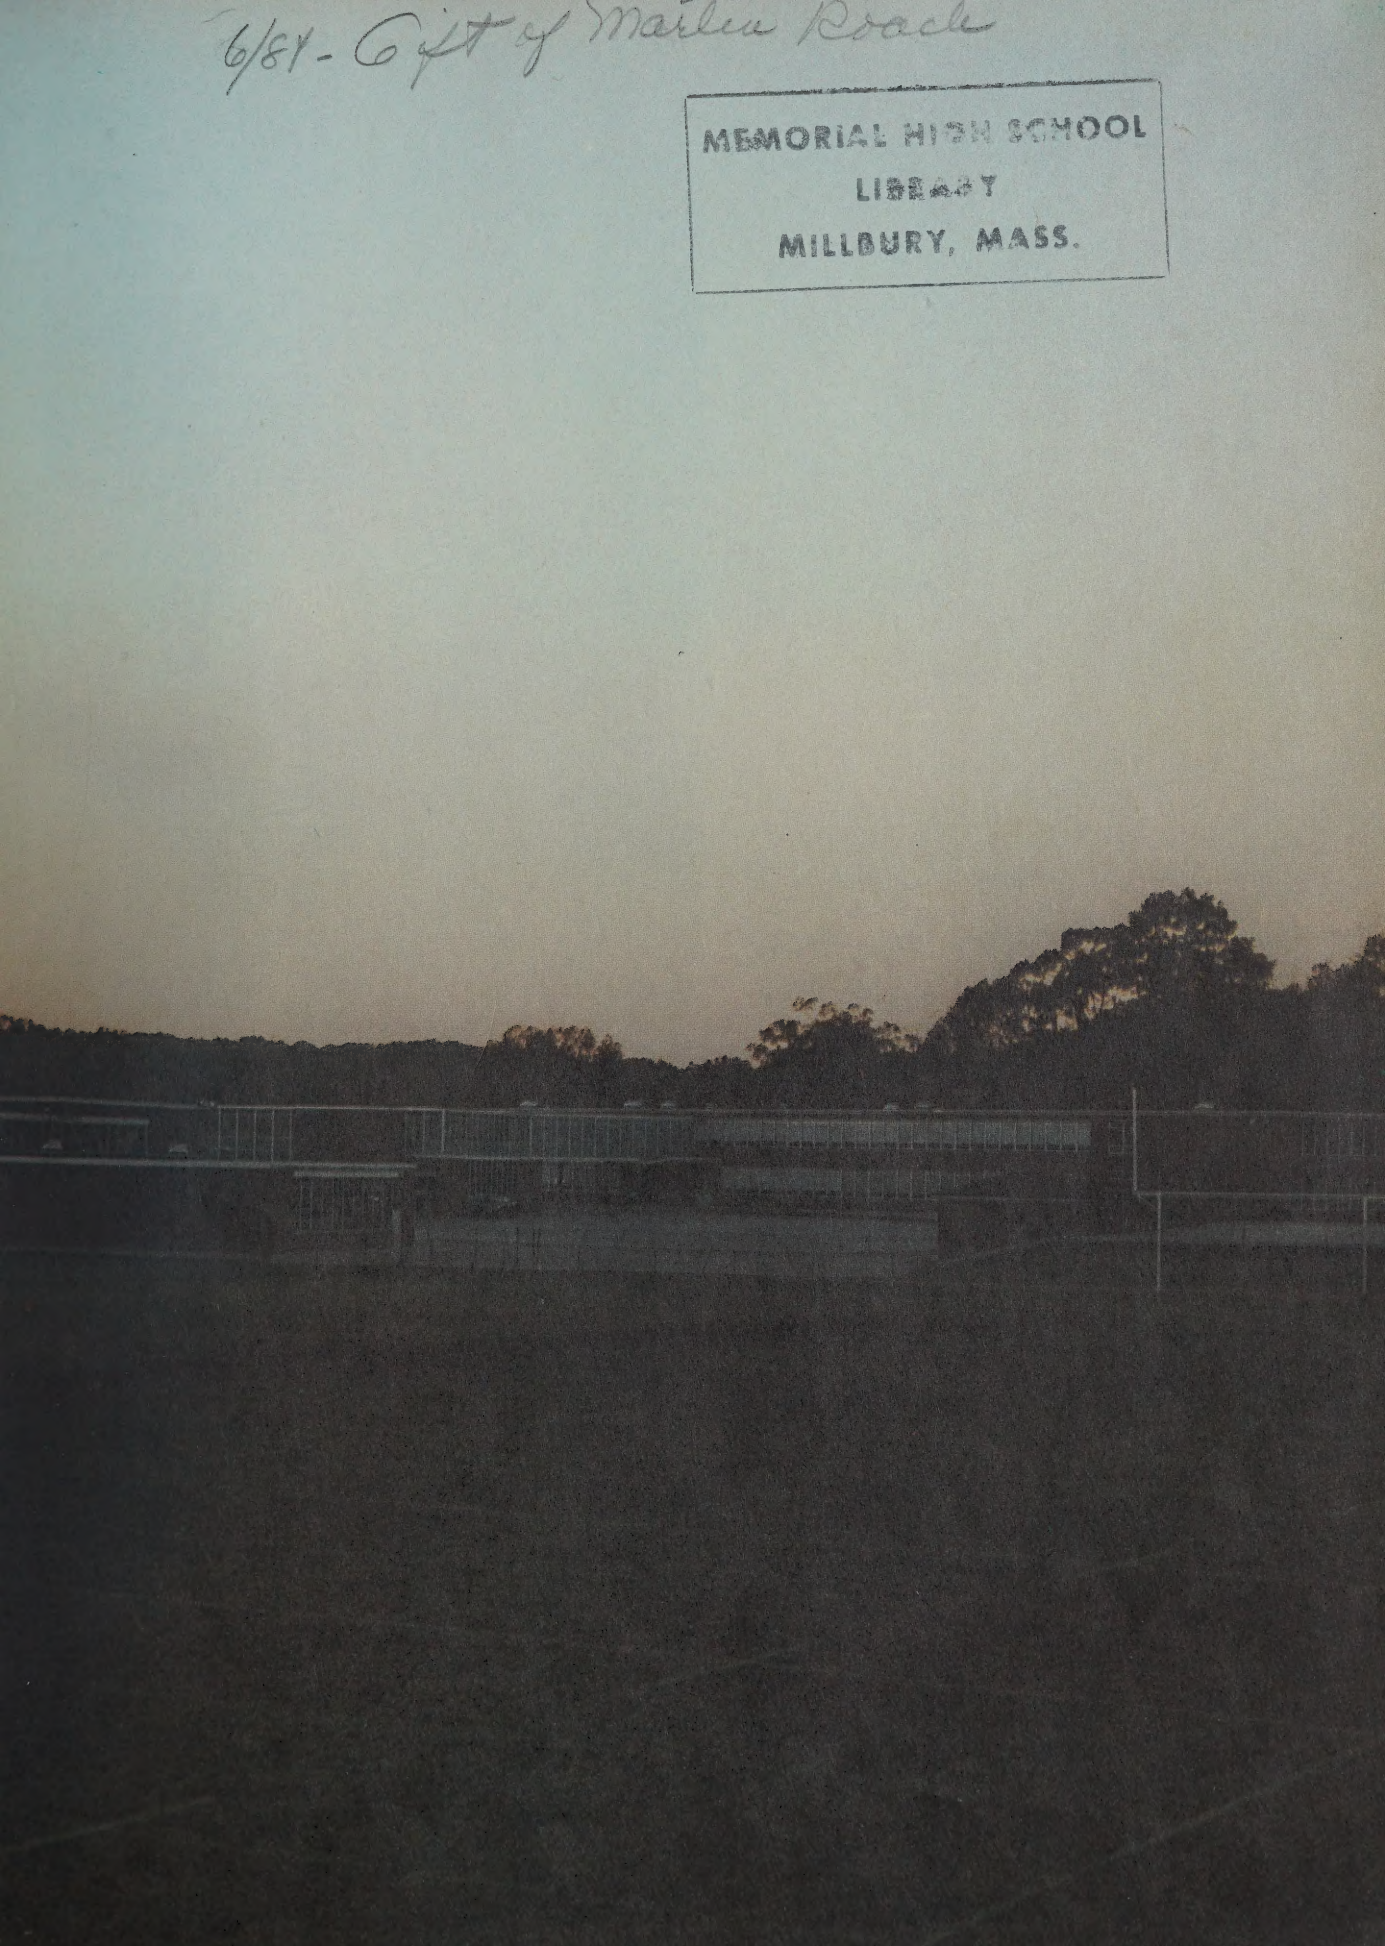
MILLBURY, MASS.



When you are old and gray and full of sleep

And nodding by the fire, take down this book,

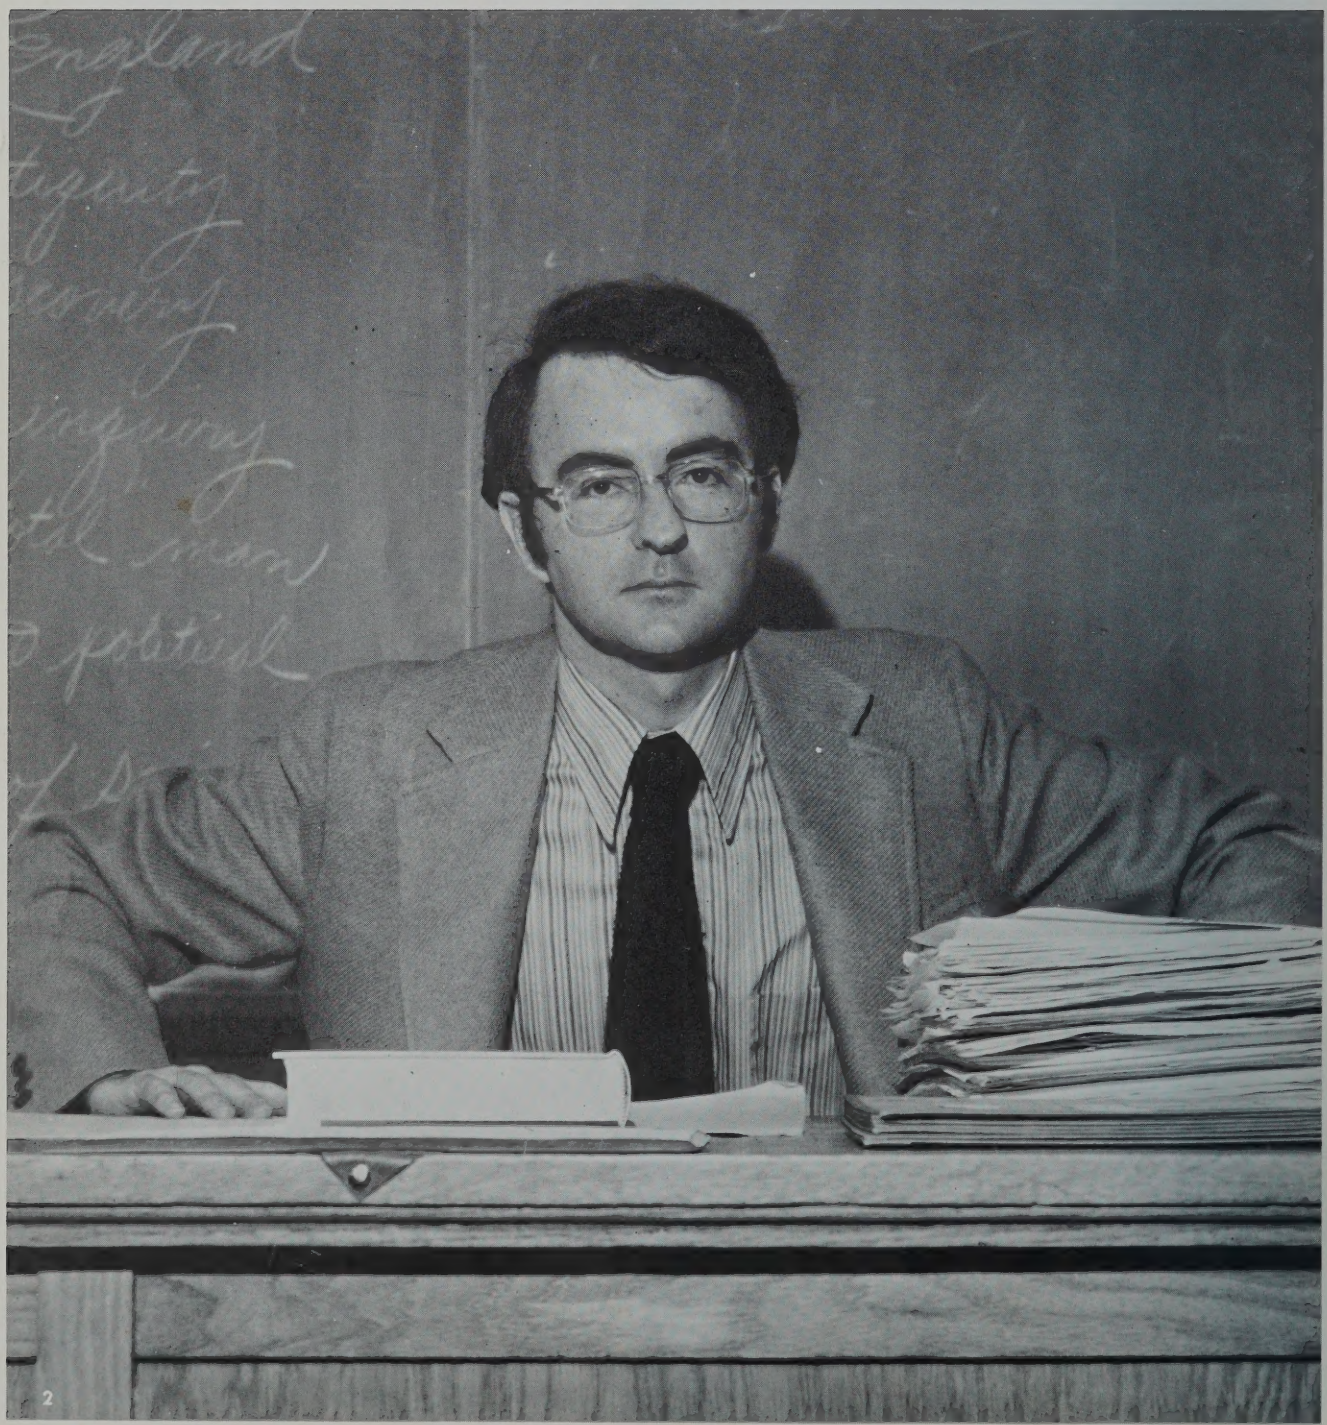
And slowly read and dream . . .

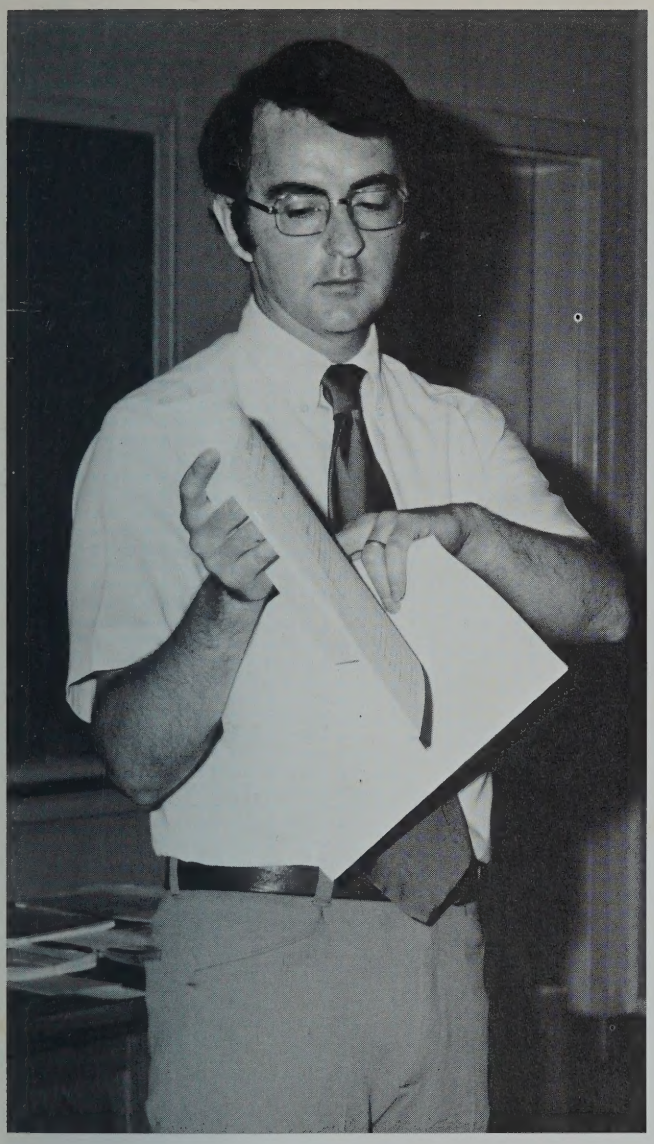
William Butler Yeats

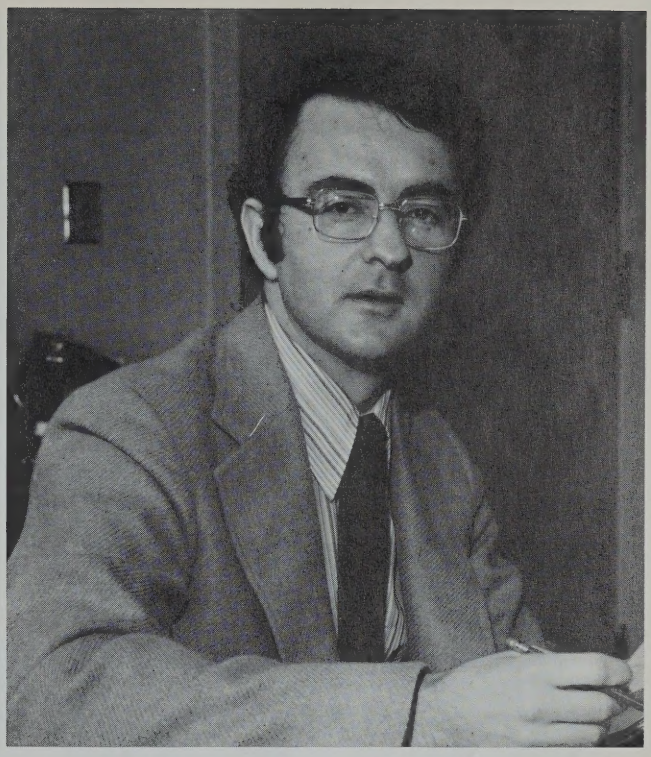
Dedication

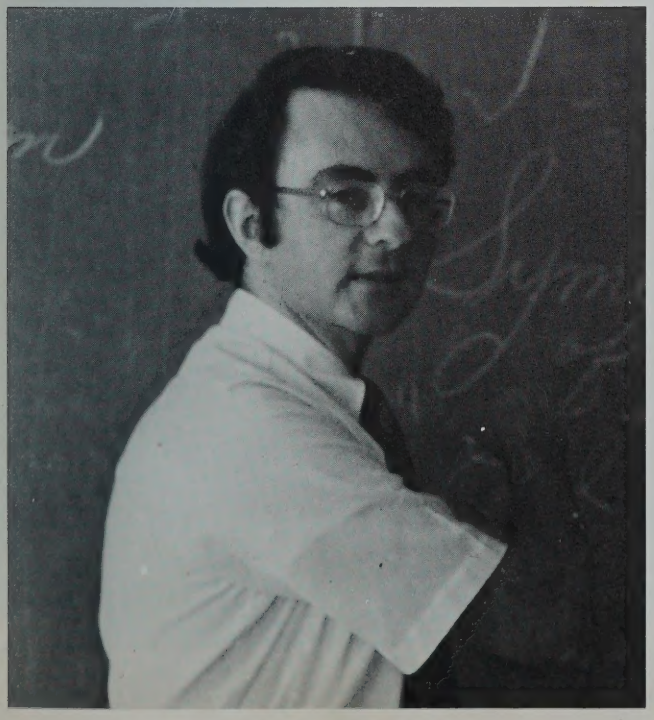
For your understanding as a teacher and a friend, your subtle sense of humor, your tolerance and patience, and your fair assessment of each student as a person, we wish to thank you, Mr. Frederick Wadsworth.

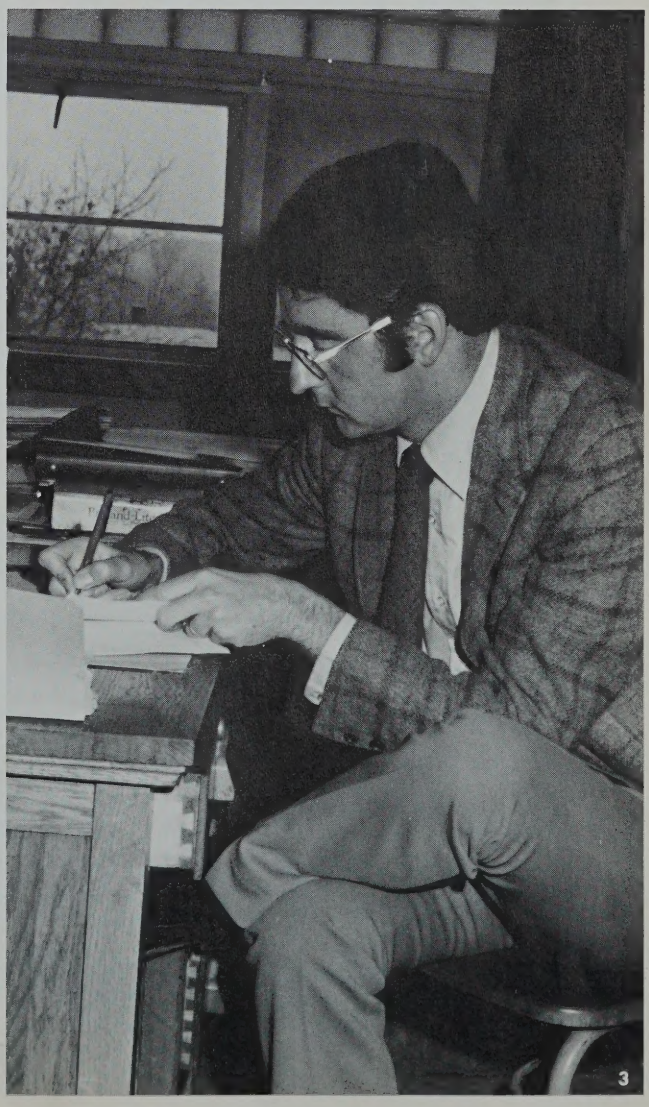
The Class of 1972

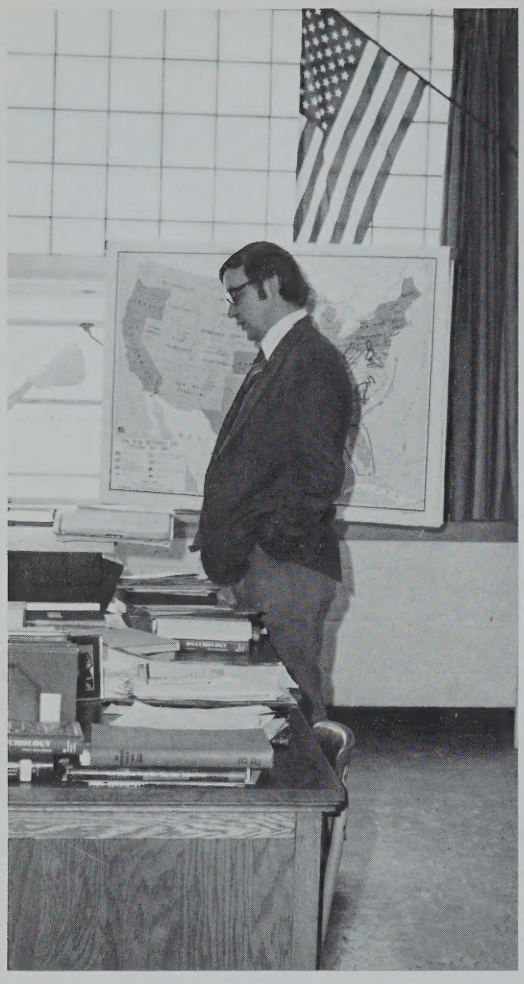












Class Advisor

Mr. Thomas Murray, for your genuine concern, your guidance, and your interest in us as a class and as individuals, we thank you.

Seniors

Of the people in my past,

Fading faces in a walking dream,

And though they never seemed to last very long

There are faces I remember

From the places in my past.

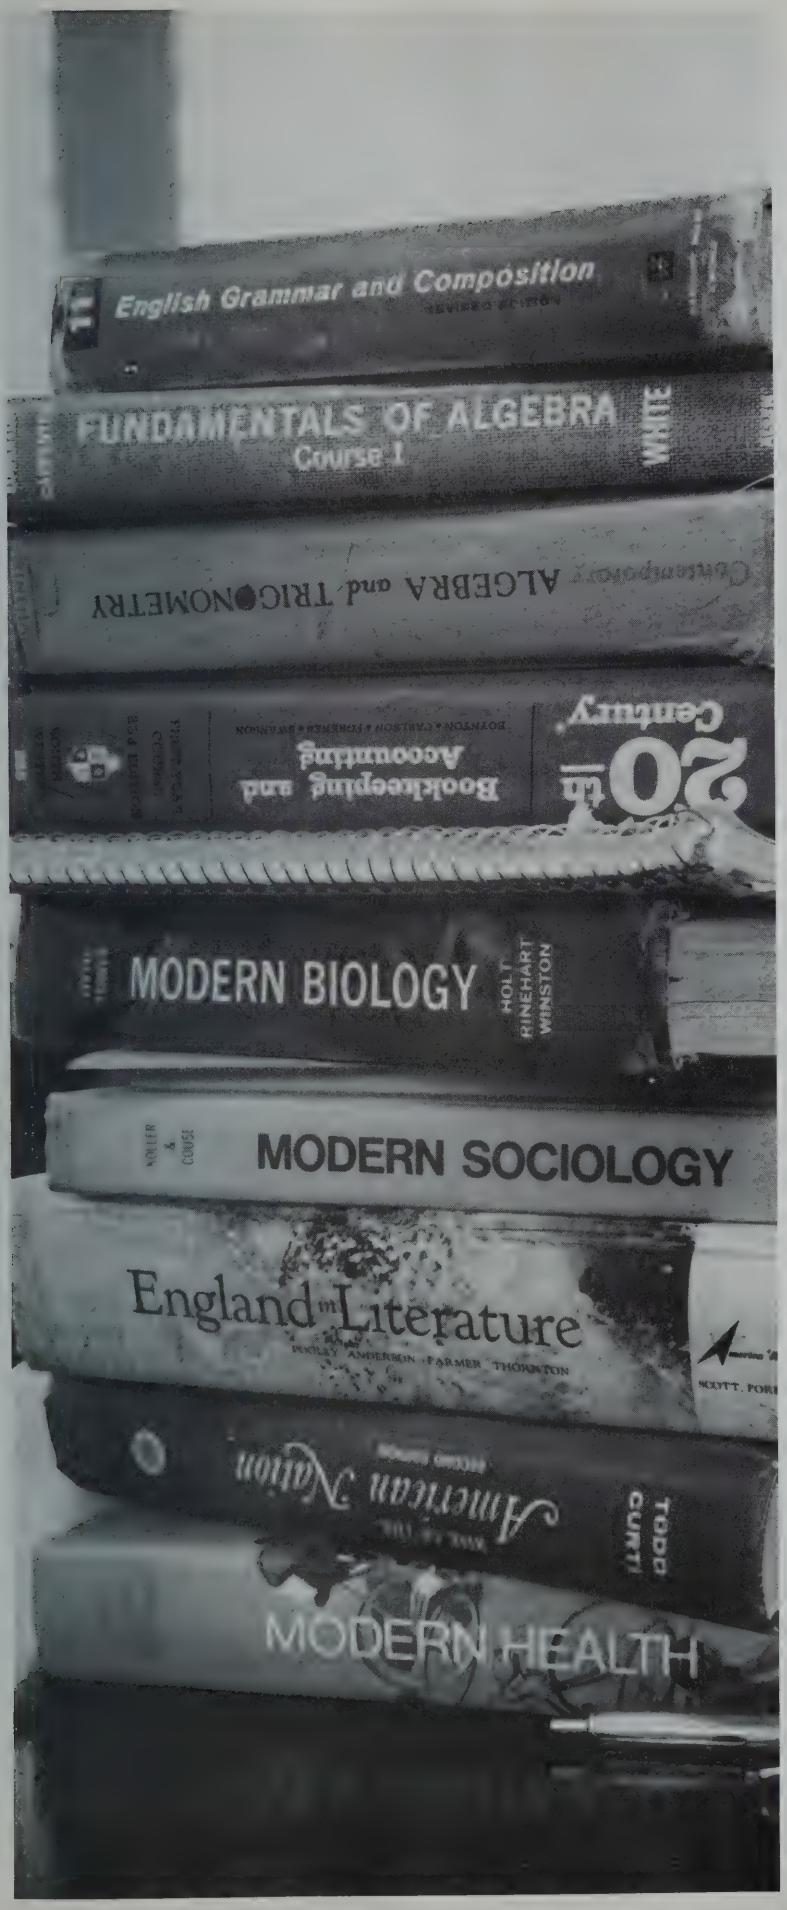
Underclassmen



Every time we say hello
to some new encounter
we're on our way
toward good-bye.
Some distance from the actual phrase
but moving toward it all the same.
The distance between those two words becomes a little less
as we grow older,
Be aware then
that tomorrow is only tomorrow;
there is nothing to fear
except the coming of another day.

Sports

That time is past,

And all its dizzy raptures. Not for this

Faint I, nor moan nor murmur; other gifts

Have followed; for such loss, I would believe

Abundant recompense. For I have learned

To look on nature, not as in the hour

Of the thoughtless youth, but hearing often

The still, sad music of humanity.

Football

Co-Captains: Michael Burfone; Mr. Matson, coach; Peter McArdle.

Due to an error on the part of Loring Studios, no football action pictures were taken for the 71-72 season. On May 26, the last day of school, seven senior players donned football shirts and posed for individual shots. The Aftermath Staff regrets that this had to be done, but there was no alternative.

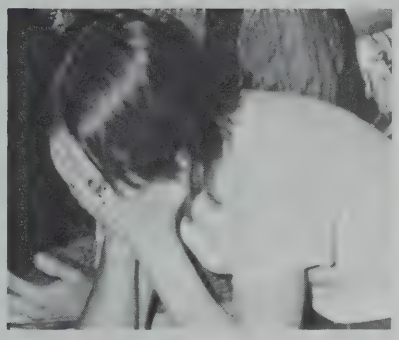
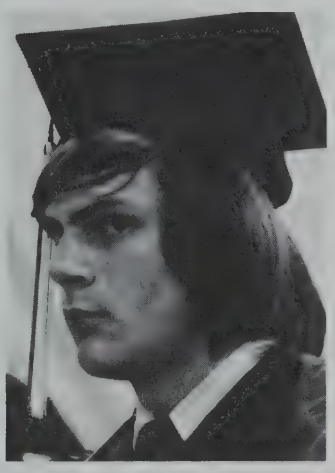
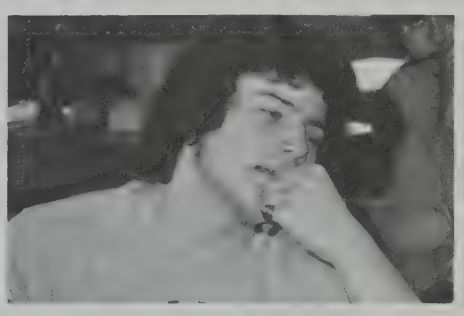
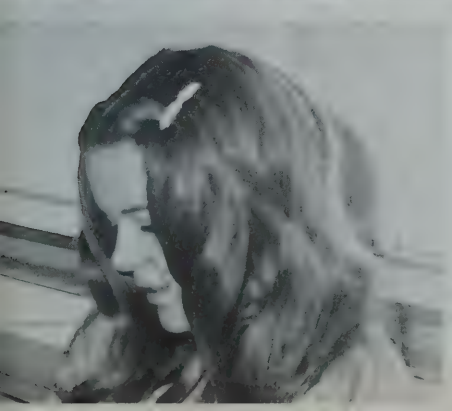
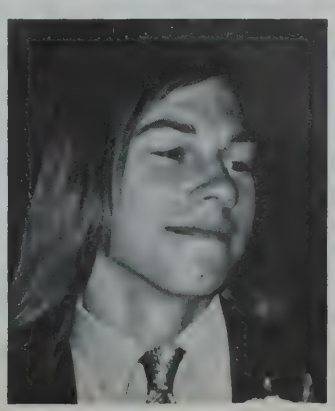
Seniors' Last Day











Look down

Look down that lonesome road

Hang down your head and cry,

The best of friends must part sometime,

So must you and I.

Money is the root of all evil.
Evil backwards is LIVE.

CONGRATULATIONS

. . . and the best of luck! We at Loring are proud of the part we have had in helping to make your classbook a permanent reminder of your school years, recording with photographs one of the happiest and most exciting times of your life! We hope that, just as you have chosen us as your class photographer, you will continue to think of Loring Studios when you want photographs to help you remember other momentous days to come! When you choose Loring portraits, you are sure of the finest craftsmanship at the most moderate prices!

Touch us gently, Time!

Let us glide adown thy stream

Gently, — as we sometimes glide

Through a quiet stream!

Touch us gently, Time!

We've not proud nor soaring wings;

Our ambition, our content,

Lies in simple things.
